HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive
Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets.
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling, invented by H. R. Hoagland, we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used.
It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure.
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use, and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent, heretofore considered the best in use.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13th.—New York specials say the meeting last night to harmonize various factions of the Republican party in this city will probably succeed.

The Commercial Advertiser editorially attempts to prove that the publishers of the Evening Post were in the present gold ring with Fisk and others and intimates that Henderson is the guilty party. It calls attention to his rapidly accumulated fortune in the last fifteen years.

The indications are that the propositions of Lockwood & Co., to settle for fifty cents on the dollar will be accepted. The House does not agree to pay the other fifty cents, but intimates that it will do so at some future time.

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—A special to the Herald from Madrid says a considerable force of government troops prepared for an attack on the position of the Republicans at Valencia this morning. The inhabitants of the district comprised within the suburbs of Valencia have destroyed the railroad for seven leagues so that the Government now receives news from that portion of the country by sea only.

Three men were scalded yesterday by the rivets of an oil can being blown out.

The United States and Spain

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12.—A special says the following is the version given of Sickles' note to the Spanish Government. Aside from the official note tendering the good offices of this Government for settling the differences between Spain and Cuba, Sickles informally submitted the draft of a note the substance of which has been published in the journals. He was informed that the reception of such a note in regular form by the Spanish Government would inevitably lead to open hostilities, as Spain would be obliged in self respect to consider it a declaration of war. Sickles thereupon decided to submit the note to the consideration of his Government. On receiving it Secretary Fish immediately instructed Sickles not to present any such document to the Spanish Government.

Chicago Dispatch

CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Three hundred and fifty Mormons, principally Welsh and English, passed through here to day en route for Utah.

Commercial Convention.

LOUISVILLE, Oct. 12.—The Commercial Convention met at the Opera House which was splendidly decorated for the occasion and was called to order by Governor Anderson, formerly of Ohio. Gov. Stevenson delivered an eloquent opening address. Elaborate speeches were made.

The afternoon session was devoted to business. A committee of one from each State was appointed. They selected a Vice President from each State to prepare the business for the convention. Some confusion arose as to whether the committees appointed at the Memphis Convention had a right to act as committees of this convention.

Ex Governor Shorter, of Alabama, offered a resolution declaring that in the opinion of the convention the importation of Chinamen in unlimited numbers is contrary to an enlightened public policy and will tend to imperil the prosperity of the cotton growing States; that it is unjust to the laboring classes and hence will introduce a new element of discord; that it merits the condemnation of all who have a regard for the welfare of our common country. [Applause.]

Objection was made to the introduction of a resolution until the permanent organization shall have been effected. After a good deal of wrangling and fruitless discussion the convention adjourned until to-morrow.

Richmond Dispatch

RICHMOND, Oct. 12.—The Court of Appeals of Virginia, composed of Judges appointed by Gen. Canby, met to-day and adjourned until the January term after recording an order setting forth that this adjournment is in view of the rapid progress of reconstruction in the State, and that in a short time officers may be elected to fill the places now held temporarily by authority of acts of Congress.

Boston Dispatch.

BOSTON, Oct. 12.—An attempt was made at 3 o'clock this morning to rob the National Bank at Townsend, Massachusetts, but the burglars used too much powder, alarming the citizens by the explosion. The outer door was blown off and considerable damage done to the building. The burglars fled, leaving most of their tools.

The Italians celebrated the anniversary of the discovery of America to-day.

The whaling schooner Susan Smith of Boston, was lost in a hurricane August 5th, and all hands were drowned except the Captain and four seamen who remained on deck eight days and nights without food or water and were taken off by an English bark and carried into London. The Captain's wife and two children were drowned in the cabin.

BOSTON, Oct. 13.—Late last night Dr. Cole of Saxonville was called from his bed on a pretence of being required by a sick patient. On leaving his house he was shot through the cheek. Shortly after this, Mr. Gray, Depot Master at Farmingham was arrested and going to a window was fired upon twice. Police Justice Adams of Farmingham, and another gentleman were also visited but delayed their appearance until the would be assassins had left. Suspicion points to a desperado recently released for assaulting his wife.

From Cuba

HAVANA, Oct. 12.—Captain General De Roda was taken sick yesterday. He is better to day.

Several unimportant skirmishes are reported in the eastern department recently. Municipal corporations in various parts of the island are sending the Captain General their adhesion to the existing order of things, with expressions of loyalty to Spain.

Later Election Returns

CINCINNATI, Oct. 13.—All of Hamilton county except one precinct has been heard from. Pendleton's majority is a little over 900. The Democratic and Republican (fusion) ticket for members of the Legislature and county officers is elected by about 1,200 majority.

CHICAGO, Oct. 13.—We cannot yet obtain further news of the Ohio election. The State is claimed by both parties. The Legislature is still doubtful.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 13.—Democrats concede the State gone for Geary by a small majority, while Republicans claim that he is elected by from 6,000 to 10,000 majority.

SCRANTON, Oct. 13.—Col. Morris, Republican, is elected Mayor of this city.

A Times special from Harrisburg dated midnight concedes that Geary has not less than 5,000 majority. He falls short of the party vote. Williams, Republican candidate for Supreme Judge has from 10,000 to 12,000 majority. The House stands about 63 Republicans to 38 Democrats, the Senate 18 Republicans to 15 Democrats. The Republicans gain one on joint ballot.

TOLEDO, O., Oct. 13.—Lucas county gives Hayes 14 majority. Republicans elect their entire ticket.

Tennessee—Gov. Senter's Message

NASHVILLE, Oct. 12.—Gov. Senter submitted his message to the Legislature to day. It was admirable. His temperate arguments in favor of his position created a profound impression, especially those portions discussing the Fifteenth Amendment and the public debt. The Governor declares that the time has come for the removal of all inequality of privileges. He regards the enfranchisement of colored people as a fixed fact in Tennessee. The right of suffrage having already been conferred upon them it is not to be supposed that it will be taken from them by those who [illegible]. The Governor then proceeds to make a strong and elaborate argument in favor of the adoption of the Fifteenth Amendment declaring that negroes are entitled to a voice in the election of those who make the laws they must equally obey. He says much may depend upon the action of Tennessee with regard to the time and conditions of the restoration of other Southern States.

On the subject of finance Gov. Senter expresses gratitude for the entire unanimity which the legislature displays in favor of the honest and complete payment of the public debt. He speaks hopefully of the [illegible] future of Tennessee [illegible] [illegible] immigration [illegible] [illegible] State [illegible] the [illegible] attention of the legislature. The message produced an excellent effect and [illegible] between the Governor and Legislature.

A passenger train on the Kentucky and [illegible] railroad was thrown off the track [illegible] yesterday, and the train delayed two or three hours. No one hurt.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

PARIS, Oct. 12.—Advices from Republican sources state that the insurrection in Spain is gaining ground. It is asserted that the Government fears there will be a general attack on Madrid.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—The Times, on the Fenian amnesty, says: The Crown is entitled to pardon rebels who [illegible] to be [illegible] not because their conspiracy is crushed but because it is still formidable enough to rally sympathisers. No one doubts the right of the government to suppress outrages against law and order. Had the forbearance of the Crown been invoked in a booming tone with the recognition of the right to protect loyal citizens already might be a message of peace. At present we see no reason to presume that it would be received [illegible] by the demanders while it must [illegible] courage those who proposed to crush the Fenian outbreak. There would be no act of grace or justice or mercy [illegible] Ireland [illegible] at heart or hostile to the Union. We believe that the majority of the Irish would rejoice at the suppression of Fenianism and some who signed the amnesty petition will be thankful if they are rejected.

The Times has an editorial to day on finance matters in the United States. It says there is [illegible] circumstances in the financial position in the United States authorizing so glaring a departure from sound rules of public economy, but it is difficult to deny that the mere struggle of gamblers by an act of the Government is magnified into an event of national importance. If Boutwell had persevered more money would have changed hands and more fortunes would have been made or marred. Other brokers would have gone mad and absconded or committed suicide, and the threat against Fisk might have been extended. It is not easy to decide whether this would have been for good or evil. It might have allayed the speculative fever, sobered gambling madness, weaned some helpless dupes from the exchange and rid it of some. It argues that the lesson will not be altogether lost, but had the lesson gone to the end it might have been more impressive and its precepts enhanced by a higher cost.

The Elections

Returns from the elections which took place on Tuesday indicate that the Republicans have carried Pennsylvania by a decisive majority but that Ohio is in doubt, both parties claiming it. As the Republicans of Ohio when they get out their whole vote really have a larger majority than the Republicans of Pennsylvania, the close run in the Buckeye State is entirely attributable to Republican dissensions and absenteeism from the polls. There has been much bolting among the Ohio Republicans this year instances of which have from time to time been given to our readers. Cincinnati is a Republican city but it was charged that a ring was controlling the party there, and many Republicans refused to support the regular ticket, formed a combination with the Democrats and supported a fusion ticket, half Democratic and half Republican, which is reported elected. Movements like this have reduced the Republican vote to such an extent that the State is reported doubtful. However, we think the chances are that Hayes is elected.

The State elections this year are conducted in a sort of helter skelter manner because it is felt that no national issue is impending and that the present is a good time to settle party disputes, adjust local matters and squelch corrupt men who usurp party control. A contemporary well says: "While the people in these local campaigns apparently manifest indifference as to results or exhibit their partiality and personal preference for certain nominees, there is a profound sentiment lying at the base of their political principles which only a Presidential campaign can fairly bring out. That sentiment is their belief that the late war was a great national fact—that it settled momentous principles and established imperishable social and political truths—and the people will no more repudiate that sentiment than they will repudiate the national debt."

Preparations for Building the Northern Pacific Railroad

New York papers of the 30th September report that for several days prior to that date the stockholders of the Northern Pacific Railroad had been in session in that city. The assurance is given that reports of the most favorable character have been received from exploring parties who have just returned from tours of survey, and that it is positively determined to commence the construction of the road early next spring. Conditional arrangements have been made at Stockholm for a force of 7,000 Swedish laborers, who will be employed upon the eastern end of the route, while about an equal number of Chinese will be employed on the western division. It has been decided, substantially, to begin the work of construction on the Pacific side at Wallula on the Columbia river, but this terminus will be only temporary, as the original design of carrying the road to Portland and ultimately to Puget Sound, will be adhered to. The eastern terminus has not yet been located, but according to the terms of the charter it must be established on the shores of Lake Superior. Several points on the Lake have been considered, but we have no indication which one will be finally selected. It is stated that work upon the eastern and western divisions will be commenced simultaneously. We give these statements as we find them in New York journals, which evidently publish them in good faith. When the full reports of the Northern Railroad Convention, which was held at Oswego (N. Y.) last week, reach us, we hope to have fuller information regarding the prospects of this great undertaking.

The Democratic Creed Rejected.

At the Minnesota Democratic Convention, which was held about a fortnight ago a delegate, (William Lochrew) advocated the insertion in the platform of the following resolution against the Fifteenth Amendment:

Resolved, That the control of the suffrage question properly and rightfully belongs to each State, to be exercised according to its own will, and therefore we are opposed to the ratification of the Fifteenth Amendment of the Constitution.

The published reports of the proceedings state that this proposition gave rise to a lively discussion and excited much opposition; several delegates declared that this was "a played-out question," that "every Democratic Convention has negro on the brain," and that "as the people of the State had by their votes allowed the negro the right of suffrage, it was best to let him alone." It was also announced that the question had been discussed in Committee, and it was thought best to leave out of the platform all resolutions on the subject, as they "would be a dead weight on the Democratic party." Another delegate proclaimed that with this resolution out of the platform they might be successful, with it in the platform defeat was certain. Finally a motion to indefinitely postpone the resolution was adopted by a vote of 70 yeas to 34 nays. So the Minnesota Democracy refused to come up to the orthodox status of the party on the Fifteenth Amendment and the "nigger question." They would be jeered at, tabooed, and kicked out of the party, by the Democracy of Oregon.

The Whole Matter in a Nutshell

The recent financial statement of the Secretary of the Treasury for the year ending 30th of June, 1869, presents some figures which those who are clamoring in a general way for "free trade" would do well to consider. While they are demanding the repeal of duties on foreign imports, it is interesting to observe that of the $370,000,000 of revenue collected during the year about $180,000,000 came from customs alone. Of course if the policy of free trade were adopted there would either be a deficit in our national budget of that amount, or it would be necessary to supply it by direct taxation. At the same time our domestic industries and manufactories which have been gradually developing and growing stronger under the policy of incidental protection, would be greatly reduced and damaged by foreign competition, while the whole burden of taxation being thrown upon home industry, would completely paralyze it and render it impossible for the country to get on at all. Is this the result which those who advocate the abolishment of customs duties are aiming at? If it is they could speedily bring about such a result by inducing the country to adopt their policy. If it is not why do they continue to bore us by talking about free trade when it is evident first that we can't do without a revenue and second that we can't depend for that revenue wholly upon internal taxation.

The late miners' mob in Nevada is receiving the universal condemnation of the press and the people. Not a journal has dared to defend its actors.

In General

Senator Cameron, of Pennsylvania in a recent speech at Harrisburg, said that President Grant has justified in his administration the confidence of those who elected him. He stated that there was no one who could successfully compete with him for the Republican nomination in 1872 and predicted that he would then be triumphantly re-elected. Cameron is a far sighted politician and yet it don't require much political foresight to see that all this is likely to come to pass.

The extraordinary rush of immigrants to this country during the three months ending June 30 of the present year is worth noting. The total number, says the New York Times, was [illegible], being a very large increase over the same period in previous years. The class of immigrants too is unusually good. It is pretty evident that these sturdy people don't think America so bad a country to emigrate to as some of our blatant Democratic politicians would try to make them believe.

A late Washington dispatch states that in a conversation with Lieutenant Governor Lewis, of Virginia who recently visited that city President Grant said: "There will be no difficulty about the admission of Virginia after the meeting of Congress and all that is required is that they act as though they (the Legislature) were acting in good faith and desired to renew their relations with the general government." He spoke at some length about President Johnson's duplicity towards the South, and said that his (Grant's) whole action had been with the single idea of restoring peace.

BY STATE TELEGRAPH

The State Fair at Salem

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

THIRD DAY

SALEM Oct 13 1869

The crowd at the State Fair to day has been beyond all precedent on the third day and it is still rapidly increasing. The receipts at the gate from the first are nearly up to six thousand dollars. The number of entries for exhibition is about 2,800, divided as follows: domestic manufactures, 73; fine arts, 49; machinery 61; flowers and fruits, 256; Ladies Department, 236; nearly 1,800; horses 208; cattle 64; mules, 12; poultry, 18; bands 2; sheep, 77; equestrianship 1.

The annual address, by Mr Thayer has been postponed till Friday.

The parade of horses and colts to day was very fine. The parade of cattle was inferior as to numbers though some good stock was shown. The Mechanical Department makes the best exhibition ever known in Oregon. There are many Oregon inventions and a good many machines of Eastern patents, but of Oregon manufacture. Almost every article shown is of prime importance in its line. The Pavilion has filled up surprisingly, and the display is magnificent compared with former years.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS

At the annual election, to-day, the following officers were elected: David Clark of Marion President; B F Willoughby of Lane, and W A Mills of Washington, Vice Presidents; Secretary John Minto; Treasurer, J H Moores; Directors, C P Burkhart, of Linn; J W Lewis, of Clackamas; B E Stewart of Yamhill; N Newton, of Benton; John C Allen, of Polk; C P Bacon, of Multnomah, and George W Hunt, of Marion.

TRIALS OF SPEED

The walking trial to-day, contested by seven horses, was won by Joseph Nixon, in 12 45, one mile; second premium to J M Hesler. Running race, one mile best two in three, contested by William Gird's mare Snowflake, W G Scoggins' Jack Minor, and G J Basket's Jeff Davis. First heat won by Snowflake in 1 54—Scoggins' horse second. Second heat won by Snowflake in 1 54½. Scoggins' horse second. Jeff Davis was distanced.

A CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS

A horse ran away on the road, to day, and collided with a horse in a buggy, and both horses were killed and the buggy smashed. This frightened Judge Grim's team, which turned suddenly, upset the carriage and threw out the occupants. Judge Grim was considerably bruised. Nobody else hurt.

MORE DEMOCRATIC AUTHORITY.—The San Francisco correspondent of the New York World, the leading Democratic paper of the nation, writes as follows:

The Chinese laborers of this State are docile, hard working, and apt at all things they take in hand beyond the laborers of any other nationality whatever. They can reap where others would starve. For instance, at Deer Creek, Nevada City, in this State, there are now fifteen Chinese companies, employing between two and three hundred of their countrymen. There are also Chinese companies working in the tributaries of this creek. White men have worked these claims over and over again, until gold in paying quantities (to them) could not be found. Chinese companies have then purchased them, and are all doing well.

Are the United States to lose the advantages of these fertile and quiet people because a few narrow minded newspaper writers think that some existing law may be tortured to their exclusion? There are hundreds of sources of wealth in the United States which white laborers have neither the patience, the endurance nor the knowledge to turn to account. Chinamen alone can make them profitable. Every hundred of them imported will make situations and a living for ten extra white men. These are not fancies, but facts that have been demonstrated.

GEN REYNOLDS ON TEXAS POLITICS.—Major General Reynolds has addressed a letter to President Grant dated September 4th, in which, after speaking of political affairs in Texas, he says:

The platform of the two wings of the Republican party are the same. The radical wing set out their profession of adherence to the Reconstruction laws of Congress and present for office men who are qualified under those laws. The conservative wing frequently nominate men for office who are known to be disqualified under those laws, but who are also known to be acceptable to the Democrats. The success of the A. J. Hamilton faction, as it will be produced by Democratic votes, will be the defeat of Republicanism in Texas and will put the State in the hands of the very men who during the rebellion exerted every nerve to destroy the Union and who have uniformly opposed the reconstruction laws with a persistency worthy of a better cause.

INDIAN BARBARITY.—We find the subjoined in the Winnemucca [illegible]:

At Iron Point in this State lately a squaw belonging to the Shoshone tribe was found with both of her limbs cut off below the knee. Her little girl about eight years of age gathered nuts and roots for her mother's sustenance and the helpless woman would crawl to the river to catch fish to support life, locomoting herself along with the assistance of her hands and bleeding stumps. Our informant told us that she had [illegible] thing helpless [illegible] her liege lord who thus took revenge [illegible] of so slight [illegible] anger. Some men kindly gave the poor woman blankets and bread and do what they can to prolong her existence. This winter she will undoubtedly die and "Lo! the poor Indian" will be satisfied and more than pleased.

MISCELLANEOUS.

It was resolved that the Committee on Streets and Public Property be instructed to inquire into the need and expediency of repainting the fence around the Plaza, and report at the next meeting of the Council.

[illegible] ation to authorize the Street Commissioner to remove forthwith the fences and other obstructions on Seventh street, was adopted.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the Auditor to issue warrants for the collection of delinquent taxes levied for the improvement of Clay street.

The Council adjourned.

[illegible]—We learn from the Statesman, Salem, that W. W. Stovall has been appointed Agent of the State Immigration Association and that he is prepared to receive subscriptions and gather information for the furtherance of the objects of that society.

[illegible] evening last, Mr Carter had a collection taken at the theatre, for the benefit of the family of [illegible], a widow lady with 8 children just across the [illegible], who are sick, destitute and in distress.

[illegible] and his co-diminutives are to give performances in Salem to-day and to-morrow.

[illegible] Williams and wife are at Salem, having nicely [illegible] rooms in Patten's brick, on State street.

[illegible] weather table for September shows 12 rainy days; rain fall 4.77 inches, highest mean temperature for the month, 58 deg., lowest 42. Mean for the month [illegible]. By this comparison it will be seen that although September was wet, yet the temperature was higher than in the same month in '68. As a result of the high temperature, we have a very fine fall growth [illegible] and cattle will be in better condition to meet the rigors of winter than usual.

[illegible] NEWS.—Our regular correspondent at Astoria [illegible] the following items under date of October [illegible]

The [illegible] Taylor arrived yesterday, (Sunday,) morning [illegible] and left at half past eight. She took in [illegible] and 60 whole bbls of salmon, shipped by [illegible] Portland 22 hlf bbls salmon shipped [illegible] & Co., Portland, and a small lot of cranberries shipped by George Flavel.

The New York schooner Walter Raleigh arrived here [illegible] afternoon, 166 days from New York. She has [illegible] the bar for the last week, but had not [illegible] by the pilots till last Friday evening, when she [illegible] near getting into the breakers in trying to [illegible] the bar. Fortunately she drifted out to sea all right and got on board a pilot who took her in safe the next day. The schooner looks well considering her long voyage and has in quite a cargo drawing 13½ feet. She [illegible] this afternoon with a slight breeze, [illegible] get towed up to Portland to-morrow.

The new Tug boat for the Columbia River Bar is expected to arrive here the latter part of this month.

[illegible].—Andrew Dreisinger accused of robbing [illegible] Kaiser & Abrams, near East Portland, a few days ago, was taken into custody yesterday morning at Hillsboro [illegible] of a warrant issued out of Justice [illegible] Court. Dreisinger went first down to Sauvie's Island, [illegible] a skiff, crossed to an island, supposing [illegible] he was on the main land. Here he put [illegible] and revolver, and getting over to this side [illegible] struck out through Washington county and [illegible] early yesterday morning. Just as he [illegible] his toilet for breakfast, Mr Switzer came [illegible] arrested him. He was brought to this city and [illegible] to the custody of Marshal Saunders. He had [illegible] $244 in coin, which he counted out to [illegible] and said it was no use to deny that he had [illegible]. He was confined in the county jail last night, [illegible] will probably have a preliminary examination by [illegible] Bull today.

NEW YORK SCHOONER.—The Walter Raleigh, consigned to Messrs Dodd & Co., of this city, from New York 164 days, came in tow of the Okanagan, night before last. For about two weeks before and after passing Cape Horn she experienced severe weather. She shows some signs of [illegible] times seen on her long voyage, but is never[illegible] in pretty good condition. Her freight is consigned to the following firms:

Hawley, Dodd & Co, 1,672 pkgs, 53 tons coal and 60 [illegible]; Wm Beck, 11 pkgs mdse; Dekum & Bickel [illegible] pkgs mdse; E J Northrup & Co 51 pkgs mdse, L L [illegible] pkgs mdse; Friedman & Co, 7; G Abernethy [illegible] 28, L White & Co 26; S J McCormick [illegible] Wolf & Co, 30, W W M[illegible]g Co, 234, Julius [illegible] Smith & Davis, 47; F K Arnold, 1, to order, [illegible]

[illegible]—This bark of 700 tons measurement, Capt E. A. Nelson, has been chartered by H. Rhodes [illegible] for a trip from Liverpool to Victoria and Port [illegible]. She will sail about the 20th of this month and will bring a cargo of iron, salt and general merchandise. Her first point of destination will be Victoria, after which she will come to this city. This marks another [illegible] in the commerce of Portland and is another [illegible] that we will soon assume a more advanced [illegible] among the commercial cities of the United States. Every vessel that comes directly to our port from the [illegible] or Europe enhances the importance of the [illegible] in a commercial point of view which will ultimately [illegible] independent of markets which have hitherto [illegible] controlled our trade.

[illegible].—A plain farmer from the country came into town day before yesterday and having imbibed freely of some "villainous compound," as [illegible] Carter would say he lost his self control. He turned [illegible] at a terrible rate, smashed in windows, cavorted [illegible] the streets for some time until night before last [illegible] himself in the hands of the police. Yesterday [illegible] the Recorder being absent at the Salem Fair, the victim of lightning whisky deposited a small amount [illegible] of remaining in pursuit and went forth into the world some poorer and it is to be hoped wiser, for his experience "under the gaslight" in Portland.

SECOND CROP.—We have heretofore noticed several [illegible] grown as a second crop in Oregon the present season. On last evening Mr F S Akin laid on our table a bunch of ripe raspberries being a duplication of [illegible] fruit produced on the same vines in July last. They were in a fair state of maturity and grew on the farm of D. H. Wiberg, Esq., across the river. We learn that [illegible] strawberry vines on Mr. Wiberg's place are in full bloom and unless the frost sets in soon a second crop of them will begin to mature. Oregon against all other [illegible] in the world on her latitude.

[illegible].—The walls of the United States Custom House building has begun to rise and we noticed yesterday that a large force went at work hewing and fitting the [illegible] stone used in the construction of this superb edifice. [illegible] tions lately received order some additional [illegible] in which will render the work more extensive, substantial and elegant, when completed. A large [illegible] to be done is to crown the building and [illegible] much to its appearance.

[illegible].—Having straightened out and fixed up those [illegible] from the late fire, and supplied himself with [illegible] new stock from San Francisco, Mr. McQuillan [illegible] to the public an elegant gallery of engravings, photographs and chromos, never surpassed by any [illegible] in Portland. We hope Mc will receive that share of the public patronage which his efforts deserve.

MAGIC.—Prof. M[illegible] again delighted his audience last night by numerous wonderful tricks of legerdemain at Oro Fino Theatre. He is a king among magicians and [illegible] a rare entertainment [illegible] the chance of drawing a [illegible] valuable prize not in worthless trinkets but genuine American [illegible]

WOUNDED.—Mr [illegible] clerk in the Bank of British Columbia in this city had his hand badly wounded by the accidental discharge of a gun while out hunting yesterday morning. The forefinger of his right hand was literally [illegible] and his whole hand badly mangled.

ASSISTANT.—The members of Willamette Engine Company No. 1 at [illegible] nominated Mr Charles Reynard for Assistant Engineer of the Portland Fire Department. Mr Reynard has also been recommended [illegible]

REAL ESTATE SALE.—The following [illegible] the prices [illegible] by A. B. Richardson Esq. at his Auction Rooms [illegible] $210 [illegible] $148 [illegible] $200 [illegible] between Oak and [illegible] and Sixth and Seventh streets.

IDA F. TAYLOR.—This [illegible] bark will be the next vessel [illegible] Portland [illegible] New York. She is said to be a splendid vessel with a capacity of 1,000 tons. See advertisement under head of New To-Day.

DIED.—Mr W. McMillen an old resident of Portland died suddenly [illegible] corner of Fifth and Washington streets in this city yesterday morning about two o'clock. His funeral will take place to-day at 2 P. M.

[illegible].—[illegible] dispatch [illegible] that the [illegible] Terra [illegible] arrived [illegible] Tuesday evening at ten o'clock.

[illegible].—The steamer [illegible] will sail for Sitka and ports on Puget Sound to-day at six P. M.

THE STATE FAIR

SECOND DAY.

SALEM, TUESDAY Oct 12

The most extravagant expectations for the second day have been more than realized. The attendance has been larger than on any corresponding day in the history of our State fairs and still the people, at evening, are coming in by hundreds from all directions. The camp grounds outside of the fair ground enclosure, which were almost bare last night are now beginning to get crowded, while the town and all the surrounding farm houses, are crammed full. The demand for sleeping places has induced numerous enterprising individuals to improvise beds of the most unheard of and uncomfortable character. One man has a bale of hay and a blanket on which he allows a customer to roost for one dollar per night. He does not contract that his guest shall either rest or sleep. Another has a bench and a blanket, another has a blanket and two by six on the floor. An acquaintance assured me that last night he slept on a blanket stretched across three strings. I don't mean to say that he slept—he hung. Another acquaintance told me, with some profanity, that he didn't do near so well as either of the others—he alternated between the side-walk and a friendly gin shop which kept open doors till two or three o'clock, and then he took an early morning walk for his health. That is about the way matters stand, in the way of lodgings, in town. At the grounds, the stables are all full, of human sleepers; the hay mows ditto, the straw stacks ditto, the brush piles were all taken early to day and when I left the grounds, all the comfortable fence corners were going fast. The crowd is fully as great now as is usual on the third or fourth day—and still they come. Where they are to find places to hang up is more than I or anybody else can divine.

ENTRIES AND RECEIPTS.

The receipts at the gate have been already over three thousand dollars, and as the women and children are not charged, the attendance to-day must have been nearly or quite six thousand people. At four o'clock the total number of entries were nearly 1,900—an unexpected increase over former years—of which the most important were as follows: Horses 163, horned cattle 51, in classes 9, 10, 11 and 12, ladies departments, 1,300, machinery, 48, grain, seeds, and vegetables 86; domestic manufactures, 40, works of art 19, flower department, 110, sheep 23, and swine 13. It is believed that by 10 A. M. to day, the total entries will exceed 2,000. The highest estimates yesterday were fifteen or sixteen hundred. Everybody is, of course, in high spirits over this indication that our State Fairs are destined yet to become of respectable magnitude. Not alone the number, but the character of entries, is most encouraging. The mechanical department makes a showing of the most cheering sort. The one shed devoted to the exhibition of machinery is literally packed full while many articles are standing outside. Not only does this department show a hopeful improvement, but there is quite a respectable exhibition of Oregon made furniture, tools and other articles of domestic manufacture. The appearance of these things indicate that our people are beginning to supply themselves with very many articles for the purchase of which Oregon coin has always hitherto been exported. Let us hope that there will never be any going back on this.

IN THE PAVILION.

The space devoted to exhibition of works of art, needlework, cookery, flowers, seeds, vegetables, etc, is not yet all occupied, but it is getting exceeding small and beautifully less. As the visitor enters the hall and turns to the right as the placards direct, he meets with a case of millinery goods displayed by Mrs Cline of Salem, another of stuffed birds and animals, by Mr C Roop, and then a long row of very creditable fruit, plants, by numerous exhibitors, Mr Miller of Milwaukie, and Mr Dickinson having the most numerous specimens. On the opposite side of the aisle is a splendid show of artificial flowers, wreaths, boquets, etc, in wax, leather, shells beads, ornamental frames, crayon and pencil pictures; fancy baskets and various other things quite too numerous to mention. Passing around the other side of the room, the spectator may dwell for an hour or more upon the display of plain and fancy articles of needlework. It would be a much more difficult work than ever undertaken by Hercules to ascertain the names of the exhibitors. The superintendents don't know, the committees don't know, and the entry clerks are too busy to afford any information. It would be like solving a complex mathematical problem, to take their books and learn through them who are who and who are not who. It would be some satisfaction to know whose hands made some of the articles displayed. In the south wing of the pavilion, the central space as usual is occupied with sewing and knitting machines and the most bewildering and bewitching specimens of work, each of which, if we may believe the operators, possesses advantages that no other machine, nor no other specimen ever had.

But, Lordy, the specimens of "goodies" made by the very best housewives ever heard of in the history or song, are beyond all mention. The specimens alone are enough to run a first-class boarding house table the balance of the year. The floral display is just superb—no other word will do.—Mrs Belle Cooke, of Salem, Mr Dickinson, of Salem, and Mr Miller, of Milwaukie, are the principal exhibitors in this department, though there are numerous others whose displays are creditable.

The show of corn, meal, seeds, grain and vegetables is also good in the quality of the articles. Mr David Prettyman of Polk county, has some of the handsomest meal I ever saw, made from corn planted the 10th of last May and gathered ripe in just four months. The variety is called "Early Albany." Mr B F Mol[illegible], also of Polk county, has some splendid looking corn of the Dent and King Phillip varieties. Mr. A. R. Shipley shows some "Early Rose" potatoes that are beauties. Mr Prettyman has some "Prince Albert" potatoes that afforded early potatoes three inches long on the 20th June. Mr Dickinson of Salem, has a fine show of seeds and vegetables. [illegible] of Portland is here with an excellent quality of Oregon made [illegible]. Barclay & Ewing of Salem show a variety of leather from the tannery, of quality superior to most that we get in our market from anywhere. Somebody whose name I did not discover exhibits a fine riding bridle made by a boy named Dorr[illegible] only ten years old. It is a marvel of excellence for so young a workman. Mr S. H. Way exhibits a large lot of pottery made at Bula, some specimens of which are very hands[ome] and all appears to be of good quality.

RACES.

The races of to-day were a trotting race at 2 o'clock and a running race at 4. For the former the entries were [illegible] Smith's stallion Pathfinder, and a brown mare belonging to T. B. Richmond, to trot mile heats best two in three. Pathfinder went to buggy, Smith driving, and the mare to sulkey, Mr Welch driving. The first heat was made in 3:06, Pathfinder being driven only just fast enough to keep a length or two ahead. The second heat the horse went off well and traveled around at a speed much more to his notion, making the mile in 2:43 without being urged. The mare was so far behind that it was with some difficulty the track could be kept clear till she came in. Pathfinder made a single mile yesterday, for exercise, in 2:42½, and could, if in good trotting condition, doubt[less] go inside 2:40 by several seconds. He is fat as a hog and in no condition for fast going. Besides showing his speed and bottom Mr Smith intends to exhibit him to the capacity of a horse of all work, and thus prove that he is the kind of horse that our farmers want. He is already a great favorite and will be more decidedly so by the time the fair closes. Not [illegible] has a stallion which they care to match against him, for speed even to say nothing of his other excellent qualities. He shows the hands[omest] and best cut on the ground. [illegible] five months old mare, belonging to Mr Powell.

The second race was for a single mile dash. H. [illegible] Scoggins entered [illegible] stallion, Portland, and Wm [illegible] Red Jacket. Reuben Everest entered a stallion but he did not appear on the track in the trial. The start was at about three lengths in favor of Red Jacket and the [illegible] was the same. The judges however gave the race to Red Jacket, no allowance being made for the start. Time [illegible]. The Portland boys who backed Portland did some very respectable cussin, swearing they had been robbed by a [illegible] game in starting.

VARIOUS MATTERS.

To-morrow I shall give you some chapters on the cattle, sheep, swine, and mechanical departments.

The annual election of officers will take place to-morrow. Mr Daniel Clark of Marion county is a prominent candidate for President and will probably be elected. Mr. Mi[illegible] is a candidate for corresponding Secretary, but his election is not so certain.

The World Circus is doing well, and so are the thousand and one other shows. They are going to make an immense drain upon the circulating cash of this country. People ought to be wiser but they are not, and I suppose never will be.

EVERYBODY IS NOW ADMIRING [illegible] just the time to get the Fall and Winter Styles. It is almost impossible to pass the splendid store of KOHN & FISHEL [illegible] Front street without being drawn in by the attractions [illegible] Gents and the [illegible] clothing and fancy goods of every description and quality. They have only [illegible] the largest stock and best assortment of goods that can be found in the city of Portland. Messrs Kohn & Fishel bring their goods direct from New York and sell as cheap as the cheapest.

At a special meeting of Protection Engine Co No 4 held at their Engine House October 11, 1869 it was unanimously resolved to nominate Mr. E. Homan, Foreman of their company as candidate for Chief Engineer of the Portland Fire Department for the coming election. It was further resolved that the company support Mr Charles Reynard, of Willamette Co No 1 as Assistant Engineer.

The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some who, [illegible] and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers [illegible] the very [illegible] though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. THE EQUALIZER!
Treating Disease by Vacuum
DR. H. A. BODMAN
HAVING PURCHASED HADFIELD'S EQUALIZER and the Patent Right for Multnomah county would respectfully inform his friends and the public generally that he is prepared to treat all fully those Chronic cases on whom all other [illegible] of cure have failed.
Having used this Instrument in connection with his medical practice for about three months, he is [illegible] that it will accomplish all that is claimed for it in [illegible] Chronic Diseases. He does not believe in the system of advertising cases cured, but any number of such may be seen on record at his office, consisting principally of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Paralysis, Curvature of the Spine, Nervous Debility, Dyspepsia, Weak Chests, Asthma, Narrow Chests, Weak Lungs, Weak Backs, Weak, Stiff and Rheumatic Limbs, Sciatica, [illegible], Epilepsy, Palsy, St. Vitus Dance, Prolapsus Uteri, [illegible], with all their concomitant Diseases, Impotency and all kinds of weakness of the Generative Organs. Spermatorrhœa confidently cured in from four to six weeks without medicine.
He uses other remedies when necessary, but the Equalizer generally performs the cure without the aid of any medicines whatever. It brings a greater supply of blood and nutrition to all weak parts, thus creating new life and tone and health and strength in those parts. It breaks up congestion and inflammation by equalizing the circulation throughout every part of the system.
Give it a fair trial and you will be satisfied with the results. It has been examined by the best physicians of all Schools of Medicine, and there has not been one dissenting voice to the correctness of the principle; all acknowledge that it fills a vacuum in the Science of Medicine.

FRESHEST GLEANINGS

The New York City Democracy call their interior allies "the hay loft and cheese press people."

The largest tannery in the world is at Kane, Pennsylvania. It already has 600 vats in operation and consumes 15,000 tons of hemlock bark per year.

The Eastern papers are speaking of Father Hyacinthe as "another Luther." If the contumacious Father is not careful he will soon find himself a "Diet for Worms."

George Casey, a colored gentleman, has inherited $75,000 in New Orleans. If that's the case he runs a good chance of being viewed through greenback colored spectacles by the State chivalry.

The response of the country to the appeal of the Avondale sufferers has been most gratifying. About $250,000 have thus far been raised to relieve the wants of the widows created by that disaster.

Kentucky is the largest whiskey producing State in the Union. There were in bond in the State July 31st, 7,429,541 gallons of spirits. Pennsylvania stands next to Kentucky with 2,718,215 gallons in bond.

The earliest known English comedy, Nicholas Udall's "Ralph Roister Doister" (1553) has been reprinted in London from the unique copy at Eton College, and is sold at a price equivalent to thirty cents of our money.

The Mexican Secretary of the Treasury has presented to Congress his report for the fiscal year ending June 30. Total receipts, $13,765,000; expenditures, 13,500,000. Two millions have been applied to the payment of the public debt, the consolidation of which he advocates.

Governor Palmer, of Illinois, tells the colored people in his public addresses that although the constitution of the State does not allow them to vote, there is nothing to debar them from the privilege of holding office. The qualifications for the exercise of the two rights are different, but very explicitly stated in the constitution.

A number of Georgians, Col. J. A. Stewart, Alexander H. Stephens and such persons, have been recently engaged in a long correspondence upon "the Government of the United States—What is it?" and all that they have been able to ascertain is to be put into a book and published for the benefit of the less fortunate and more ignorant portion of America.

The regularity with which the "Lost Tribes" are periodically found, says the New York World, is paralleled only by the persistency with which the last surviving soldier of the Revolution annually dies. To-day the lost tribes are discovered in the depths of Central Africa; yesterday they were found on the steppes of Tartary, and to-morrow they will turn up in Alaska.

The Washington Republican is laboring to show that the national capital is not necessary to Washington after all. It urges that the citizens should take advantage of the immense water power they have, and tells them that they should "prefer rather so do without the capital than to live in everlasting dread of the bats and owls of a ruined city, and evoke from the opportunities of the times the solid assurance of normal trade as their reliance."

Designs are offered at Cincinnati in competition for prizes for a suitable monument to General McPherson. A committee of members of the Society of the Army of the Tennessee have the matter in charge, and have already purchased a site for the monument at Clyde, Ohio, near the old McPherson farm, and exactly on the spot where the gallant General was born. A fund of fifteen thousand dollars has already been raised. The designs, which have been placed on exhibition, are sixty in number.
